Samuel Johnson

Congratulations to Samuel Johnson, who will be participating in two events at the Latin American Studies Association's 2022 conference in San Francisco. His paper "Equivocation, Translation, and Re-Existence in "A queda do céu" (2013)," was accepted as part of the panel "Reimagining Post-Extractivist Futures." He will also be presenting work from his dissertation as part of the LASA Environment section's round table, "Emerging Issues in Latin American Environmental Research II".
